MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES
The last Sunday in August grad mbsit to be a record Sunday for the Memorial Congregation, with two special services planned for the last Sunday of the Month.
The Men's Chorus will present two special numbers: "He Is Mine" by Miles, and "Lead Me, Saviour" by Davis. The Pastor's Sermon Subject will be "The Battle Of Good And Evil," Based on the Book of Revelation. The services is being announced on Membership Sunday, with effort to have as many members and friends present, as possible, for the closing morning service of the first two months of the New Conference Year.
For the evening service, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a combined Choir of the Sanctuary Choir and Mens' Chorus and they will present several selections "The Awakening Chorus" by Chas. H. Gabriel; "Lead Me Gently Home, Father" by Thompson; and "Whisp'ering Hope" by Hawthorne. The brief evening message will be "Our Freedom of Choice - Can We Maintain It?" Visitors are especially welcome, and all members are urged to be present for closing service of the month.
The Church School Attendance Emphasis for the months of July and August is really succeeding with a record attendance last Sunday in 11 classes. The Youth Division took the banner for the largest percentage attendance. One new class for Young Adults has been formed recently with Harry Gordon Lowe, teacher; and the Crib Room and Nursery with Mrs. J. E. Jamerson, in charge, is proving very helpful for parents in providing for their children during the Morning Worship service.
The Commission on Education, Mrs. J. N. Jennings, Chairman, will meet following the Sunday Evening Service for a Planning Session of the Fall Activities of the Commission, with special emphasis upon National and World Missions.
The Commission on Education will meet in the Wesley Fellowship Class Room at 7:00 p. m. Monday, with Mrs. David M. Trent, Chairman, presiding. Especial planning for the Fall Rally Services during September and thePromotion Day Exercises the Last Sunday of the month. New Classes in the Children's and Youth Division will be formed, beginning on Oct. 1st.
